Request for bids on Dilatrend (carvedilol) 6.25mg x 30 and 25.0mg x 30 tablets

Roche Products (New Zealand) Limited is planning to discontinue supply of carvedilol tablets (Trade name Dilatrend) to the New Zealand market. To enable this Roche is seeking expressions of interest from local Wholesalers for the bulk purchase of remaining stock on hand which includes 6.25mg and 25mg tablet presentations.

Table: Dilatrend stock on hand at 17 November 2015

Product	Units	Expiry date
Dilatrend tabs 6.25mg x 30	4,557	30.11.2016
Dilatrend tabs 12.5mg x 30	Sold out	..
Dilatrend tabs 25mg x 30	13,617	31.05.2019

Dilatrend was delisted from the Pharmaceutical Schedule on 31 August 2015. However, a small quantity of stock remains on hand at our distribution centre and will be subject to local destruction if a suitable buyer cannot be found.

Interested bidders are encouraged to submit their offers no later than end of business Friday 4 December 2015. A final decision will be made by Roche within 5 working days following. If you require further information about this request, please contact David Roberts, DDI: 09 5239437 or email david.roberts.dr3@roche.com.

Sincerely,

David Roberts
